Can we leverage neighborhood councils' planning and land use committees to foster sustainable practices among developers? WORKSHOP JUNE 29

Come Saturday, June 29 to listen to representatives of neighborhood councils that have begun to incorporate sustainability (such as tree preservation, energy conservation, electric vehicle charging capabilities, and stormwater capture) into their discussions with developers. And talk with representatives of the US Green Building Council and the City Planning Department, as well as developers, as we share best practices, what has worked, what hasn't, and where we want to go from here.

Visit https://www.ncsa.la/sustainable_practices_for_developers to learn more and to RSVP.

V. Adjournment:

Time allocations for agenda items are approximate and may be shortened or lengthened at the discretion of the President. Public comment will be taken for each motion as well as for any item in the consent agenda prior to Board action. The public is requested to fill out a "Speaker Card" to address the Assembly on any item of the agenda prior to the Assembly taking action on an item. Comments from the public on Agenda items will be heard only when the respective item is being considered. Comments from the public on other matters not appearing on the Agenda that is within the Assembly's subject matter jurisdiction will be heard during the Public Comment period. Public comment is limited to 1 to 2 minutes per speaker, at the discretion or unless waived by the Assembly. In the interest of addressing all items on the agenda, time limits for individual comments and discussion may be set at the discretion of the President. All items on the consent agenda will be determined by a single Committee vote and without Committee discussion. Committee members may request that any item be removed from the consent agenda and considered individually at any time prior to that vote.

Per Board of Neighborhood Commissioners Policy #2014-01, agendas are posted for public review at: 1) Woodbine Park Kiosk, 3409 S. Vinton Ave.; 2) Palms Neighborhood Council website, www.palmsnc.la

In compliance with Government Code section 54957.5, non-exempt writings that are distributed to a majority or all of the board in advance of a meeting may be viewed at Woodbine Park Kiosk, 3409 S.
