Residents can also call the appointment call center at 833-687-0967 if they need help filling out an application.  - b. If you or someone that you know needs support with completing rent relief program applications or if folks have questions about the eviction moratorium, please join us for a workshop during tonight's meeting.
- IV. COMMITTEE BUSINESS

- b. Discussion: supporting renters/landlords whose buildings have been targets for trespassing and theft. What resources can we identify? What actions could we encourage folks to take?
- c. Discussion and Workshop: Inform and educate Palms residents about the Emergency Rental Assistance Program. Share resources and help folks with the application process and any questions they may have about the emergency eviction moratorium.
- d. Discussion: Dates and times that we might hold another workshop. Should we record any portion of the workshop in the future?
- e. Discussion: Advancing our effort of identifying units designated for very low income or low income residents based off of developments that the Palms NC has approved and other housing resources. Begin listing properties, developer/management companies, identifying how many units should be allocated for folks at specific income levels, when the development was approved, and when the development was completed (or is scheduled to be completed). Begin creating a spreadsheet.
